

... IN THE SOCIAL REALM ...

Oh, guard pure affection, nor let it e'er The blight that this world o'er the warmest will steal,
While the faith of all round us is fading or past, Let such, ever green, keep its bloom to the last.

Far safer for Love 'tis to wake and to weep,
As he used in his prime, than go smiling to sleep;
For death does his slumber, cold death follows fast, While the love that is wakeful lives on to the last.

And though as Time gathers his clouds o'er the head,
A shade somewhat darker o'er life they may spread, Transparent, at least, be the shadow they cast,
So that Love's softened light may shine through to the last.

The Autumn Season.

September suns are golden but the elixir of autumn is in the air and an exhilarating touch in the breath of morning and evening, serves as a reminder that summer is actually gone and that the ripened maturity of the year has come.

September means for Richmond boys and girls the end of the long, bright vacation months and the return from the joys of country living to the serious work of the school-room. The streets that have been comparatively empty, will in a few days, echo to the quick footsteps of young lads and lassies, with their books and their bright morning faces as they pass on their way to the beginning of another year of mental work and development.

September means for older people, here and elsewhere, the ending of many things and beginning of many more. It means for the careful housewife the thorough fall house-cleaning and renovation which puts the home in order for the winter, the planning and making up of new ward-rob- es, and the unending details which render the wise American house-mother the greatest executive head in the great American nation.

September means for the clever club woman the picking up of numerous threads of interest along lines social, literary and philanthropic. It means the broadening interest of lectures, musicals and receptions, as well as the quickening inspiration produced by association with the great minds that create the lectures and talked-of books of the day.
In the ear of the Richmond belles and debutantes, some of whom are still lingering over their summer outing, September sounds a call for them to come home and make ready for the pleasures and triumphs that the autumn and winter hold in store.

September at Hot Springs.

The September season at Hot Springs, Virginia, is most attractive.
Mr. George W. Pelton, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. Pelton, who was Miss Baker, of Staunton, are spending their honeymoon at the Hot, as it has come to be the fashion for young bridal couples to do.

Miss Scott, Mrs. Cunningham, and Miss Grace Cunningham, who spent the summer at the Hot with the Rev. John G.
Scott, rector of St. Luke's church, have returned to Richmond. Mr. Scott's cottage was the centre of much pleasant hospitality during the summer and the ladies just mentioned proved themselves the most attractive of hostesses and made many friends.

Mrs. Frederick Scott and her daughter, Miss Frances Scott, will remain at the Hot through September and perhaps later. Miss Scott, who is an expert horsewoman, has been urged to drive in the Richmond Horse Show, where she and her brother, Mr. George Cole Scott will have several entries.

Dr. Robert Strang, rector of St. Paul's church, this city, and bishop-elect of the diocese of East Carolina, is at the Hot as the guest of Mrs. Fred Scott.

A very attractive and clever figure in the company gathered at the Virginia Springs is Mrs. John Spencer, of Williamsburg, Va., who, with her son, is a guest at Miss Marie Marshall's cottage. Mrs. Spencer, who is given to wearing pretty gowns, is joined by Mr.
Spencer last week. A friend of hers, Mrs.
T. M. Bland, of Richmond, is considered to be one of the handsomest women at the Hot.

Mr. and Mrs. Deatur, Astell are occupying their cottage, which is one of the pleasantest among a number of pleasant cottage homes. Mrs. Astell is still in mourning for her father.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bryan have been joined by their son, Mr. Thomas J.
Bryan.

Mr. Melville E. Ingalls, president of the Bk Four railroad, celebrated his anniversary birthday Tuesday with a family reunion and picnic on Flag Rock.
Mr. and Mrs. Sterry have just returned from a trip to Poland Springs, Me.

King—Redd.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Redd announce the engagement of their daughter, Grace to Mr. Howard Vayle King, the wedding to take place in October. Miss Grace is the youngest daughter of the family, is a very attractive appearance, and her sunny disposition has won for her a host of friends.

Mr. King was formerly of this city, but having been recently appointed assistant cashier of the Bank of Louisa, and having charge of the Branch Bank at Sulphur Mines, Va., he will take his bride to that place.

The wedding will be one of the most interesting events of the season.

Invitations Issued.

Invitations have just been issued by President and Mrs. Charles E. Taylor, of Wake Forest College, N. C., for the marriage of their daughter, Jane Elizabeth, to Mr. William Dabney Duke, of this city, the ceremony to take place at the home of the bride, September 21st. Miss Taylor is a beautiful and talented woman and is greatly admired in society. Mr.
Duke is a very prominent man in Richmond and is widely known as a general manager of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac road.

Virginia Authors.

Among the guests registered at Hotel Bel Air is Mrs. T. Purdy, of Lawrenceville, formerly Miss Nannie Cannon Sutton, of Richmond. Mrs. Purdy is rapidly taking her place among the talented young authors of the South.
The marriage will take place September 21st at "Woodland," the home of the bride, near Crewe, Va., in the presence of only the immediate families of the contracting parties.

Bazaar Opening.

To-morrow evening the Armory, Seventh and Marshall Streets, will present a brilliant and inspiring scene. It will be the opening night of the bazaar, which is to be given for the benefit of the Sacred Heart Church, in Manchester, and all of Delightful Dance.

A most delightful dance was given last week at Blackstone, Va., in honor of Misses Lucy and Archie Friend, of Petersburg, Va., guests of the Misses Jones.
The music was furnished by the Blackstone String Band. The following couples were present: Miss Lucy Friend with Mr. Epes Harris; Miss Archie Friend with son. The stage was set by Messrs. Frank Epes, Thos. Epes, W. A. Taylor, T. F.

Epes, and Travis Epes, of Richmond; Edward Epes and Segar. The great success of the evening was largely due to the chaperones, who were Mrs. Charles Wel-singer and Miss Mattie Epes.

Natural Bridge Excursion.

The Young Men's Christian Association excursion to Natural Bridge was highly successful and thoroughly enjoyable. After a charming trip the travelers returned to Richmond delighted with the beautiful place they had visited. Mr. C.
H. Paxton, proprietor of the Natural Bridge hotel, entertained them most hospitably, and nothing was left undone that could give them pleasure.

Mrs. W. S. Murray, the chaperone, desires to express her grateful appreciation of the kindness shown by Mr. Paxton, T. M. C. A. Secretary McKee, Messrs.
Warthen and Bowers, of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, and the Richmond press.

The excursionists were: Miss Mattie Shaughnessy will be the accompanist.

Saturday, September 17th—Hibernians' night—there will be music, followed by raffling and voting of articles from each booth. So all interested should be present on "Hibernians' night." Monday night, September 19th, will be McGill Catholic Union night. The West End Angels will furnish music; Master Harry Lucy will give a solo and Misses Maggie and Georgina Lucy duets. The programme for remainder of the second week of the bazaar will be announced later.

At the Manchester booth Mrs. J. H.
Hogan will be chairman, assisted by Messdames Moody, Salmon, Sullivan, Dassett, Toler, Saunty and others.

At the floral and reception booth, Mrs.
Joseph Decker will be chairman, assisted by Misses Susie Treman, Agnes O'Neill, Alyce McGinnigh, Grace Metcalfe, B. Moore, Martha Graff, Mary and Louise Nealer, Emma Lucas, Marie Heremburg, and Mrs. C. H. Melghan, Mrs.
T. S. Nelder, Mrs. C. G. Evans.

Those who have chances of the diamond ring should be present Monday, as it will be raffled off.

Mrs. V. Donati, chairman, assisted by Miss Charlotte Griffith and a number of other ladies and gentlemen. Mrs. Donati invites the ladies to do their marketing with her during the two weeks of the bazaar, as she will have everything in season.

At the Sacred Heart Church booth, Mrs.
John McCready will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mary Mosby.

MISS MAGGIE BELLE ROLLER.

Fort Defiance, Va.

Miss Roller is the daughter of the principal of Roller School at Fort Defiance, Va.

Beautiful and accomplished, she was a belle at Virginia Beach in August and was much admired during a visit paid afterwards to friends near Richmond.

The Catholic congregations in this city have united to make the affair a thorough success. The Armory is beautifully decorated with hunting and electric lights.
A stage has been erected, and seven booths have been artistically arranged.
These will be presided over by a corps of charming women, assisted by a bevy of beautiful and attractive girls, who will take pleasure in disposing of their wares to customers. To-morrow evening will be Knights of Columbus night, and will be especially attractive. So all interested in the bazaar should be present. The programme is to make the address, and little Miss Pauline Sullivan, of Washington, will execute some intricate dances.
On the stage will be Governor and Mrs.
McDonough, Mr. J. A. McDonough, grand knight of the Knights of Columbus, who will introduce the Governor; Deputy Grand Knight Alvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs.
W. A. Sullivan, little Miss Pauline Sullivan, of Washington, and the Rev. Thomas J. Waters, pastor of the church, and other clergy.

The programme for the following evenings during the week will be: Tuesday, September 19th—St. Mary's Social Union Cunningham will sing a solo and Mr.
Thomas Ryan will recite to musical accompaniment.
Wednesday, September 20th—Elks' night.
The programme will open with music.
Misses Blinn, Cole, Mary, Well, Louise Stout and Jean Johnson will execute a made for their comfort and convenience.

The expense of the entire trip is $15, and this includes round-trip railroad transportation, transfer of passengers and luggage from station to hotel in St. Louis and return, seven days board, five entrances to exposition, trolley-ride around St. Louis, ride on the lagoon and a ride on the Intramural railway.

A Delightful Hay Ride.

A party of gentlemen from the West End tendered several young ladies of Church Hill a most delightful hay ride Thursday night, September 8th. These present were Misses Mattie Barker, Myrtie Chiles, Maud Woodson, Julia McChes-no, Minnie Barker, Corde Bayless, Mabel Woodson, Maggie and Bessie Neale, hall, Benton Bayless, Carroll Martin and Woodson Tompkins.

To Enter Virginia College.

Miss Mary Everson Barrow, of No.
903 Floyd Avenue, the daughter of Captain W. W. Barrow, of the State Corporation Commission, will leave September the 26th to commence a four years' course at the Virginia College, near Roanoke, where she will enjoy the quality of a degree. The Virginia College is one of the best equipped women's colleges in the South, and is attended by students from distant States. An unusually large number will matriculate this year.

Instructor at Ithaca.

Miss Cora Agnes Fields, of Kinston, N.
C., who is well known in her native State and in Richmond, where she has spent much time in the past two years, has accepted a position as instructor in the Conservatory of Music at Ithaca, New York.

Mrs. Welch's Dancing Class.

The younger members of Richmond society always look forward with great pleasure to the annual autumn reorganization of Mrs. James Welch's dancing class, and to the series of german which the meeting of the class brings about that are among the pleasantest prospective social features of the coming season.

Mrs. Welch has secured a delightful hall at No. 903 Floyd Avenue. Her class, which is always made up of the most charming girls and boys in Richmond, promises this year to be unusually full and attractive.

To Meet Friday.

The regular meeting of the Richmond Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held at Lee Camp Hall Friday afternoon, September 16th, instead of Wednesday. The hour of the meeting which is most important, is fixed for 4:30 o'clock. Delegates to St. Louis and Petersburg will be elected and amendments to the constitution will be discussed. This will be the only meeting before convention.

Flower Show at Lenox.

Lenox cottagers were interested Friday in the autumn exhibition of flowers and fruits by the Lenox Horticultural Society, of which Mrs. Mary Mosby is president. In the competition for bakets of flowers arranged for effect, Mrs.
De Heredia's exhibition of yellow asters and white clematis received the first award. Mrs. Frank K. Sturge's basket of field grasses, daisies, corn, flowers and hops won second in the competition, and Miss Helen Parish's arrangement of white clematis was third. Mrs. John E.
Parsons's display of perennials was first, and Mrs. Edward Wharton and Morris K. Jesup divided the first awards for annuals. William D. Sloane's Elm Court fountain won the award for gladioli. Giraud Foster won the first award for grapes and peaches. John Sloane received first for nectarines, and William D. Sloane for figs and outdoor fruit. Giraud Foster took all first awards for vegetables.

Orschel—Mosby.

Mrs. Mary Mosby has issued invitations to the marriage of her daughter, Virgie Bland, to Mr. Andrew Valentine Orschel, the ceremony to take place Wednesday next, September 14th, at 5 o'clock P. M. in the home of the bride's sister, Thirteenth and O Streets.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Cabell, of West Franklin Street, who spent a part of August at the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs, are now visiting the St. Louis Exposition.

Mrs. Addie Davis Lyons is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Bohmer, at Edgewater Park, near Philadelphia.

Miss Alene Stokes has returned from the White Sulphur Springs, and since coming to Richmond has been the guest of her friend, Miss Urquhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Palmer and family are spending some time in New York.

Miss Lily Urquhart will be the guest of Miss Emily Addison, in Ashland, this week.

Mr. Barton Grundy has gone South as the guest of his friend, Mr. Barr, the railroad magnate.

Mr. Andrew Moreland, of the American National Bank, has returned from a business trip to South Carolina and is at No. 215 East Franklin Street, where he was joined yesterday by his sister, Miss Moreland, and his little son.

Preliminary Showing

—OF—

Autumn Styles.

OUR initial displays of Modes in Millinery and Outer Garments for the forthcoming seasons have long been regarded as authoritative as to style.

The excellence which has hitherto characterized our previous seasons' displays has been fully maintained—more than that, this year shows an advance on its predecessors.

Our present displays, as a whole, presage success—it mirrors admiration and the liberal buying indicates that many customers not only prefer to choose from early showing, but appreciate that our prices are right.

IN REALTY'S DOMAIN.

Many Private Sales, But Few Public Auctions During Week.

With the advent of the fall months the real estate market is picking up considerably, and many houses are both being rented and sold.

There have been few auction sales recently, but a quantity of private sales have been negotiated and much valuable property has changed hands.
Sales scheduled for the coming week are: On Monday, at 12 o'clock by R. B.
Chaffin & Co., the valuable farm "Longfield," Henrico, containing 297 acres of land.
On Wednesday at 5:30, Augustine Royall & Co. will sell a double tenement, No.
1611 and 1613 Bainbridge Street, Manchester.

The store house, No. 314 East Broad Street, has been thoroughly renovated

MRS. JOHN DAVIS CHRISTIAN.

Mrs. Christian is president of the Old Dominion Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She is a daughter of the late Major Edward S. Hutter, a gallant Confederate soldier. Mrs. Christian is one of the many energetic women of Lynchburg, who has accomplished much for the Daughters of the Confederacy. She is first cousin of Mrs. Dana Gibson, and represents one of the most prominent families of the State, the female members of which are noted for beauty.

decorated. The string band from the Yellow Sulphur Springs will furnish the music during the entire evening.

The third floor will be for smokers, dressing rooms, etc. Beautiful souvenirs will be given each guest.

Four hundred invitations have been issued by the Chapter, which will spare no pains and expense in making the reception a brilliant social affair.

A delicious menu has been arranged, and iced punches will be served in the reception hall.

Mrs. J. Davis Christian, president of the Old Dominion Chapter, will be assisted in receiving by Miss Maria Walker, Misses Forsberg, Miss Ruth Jennings,
